

Schenectady Community Action Program
Creating Opportunity in Partnership

Schenectady Community Action Program (SCAP) provides families with young children from birth to age 21 with increased and aligned mental health and related resources to adequately address social, emotional, cognitive and behavioral concerns that interfere with healthy development and wellness. SCAP does this by infusing evidence-based practices into primary care, education, and family settings.

CONTACT US

Heather Dery
projectlaunch@scapny.org
(518) 377-2015, ext. 1308

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES

- Community-based Mental Health provider for children and families.
- Identify and support children who are at risk or identified with mental health, developmental delay and/or disability, social-emotional and/or behavioral concerns.
- Assist the family to access Mental Health supports and providers, Special Education Services (EI, CPSE, CSE), and Developmental-Behavioral Pediatrics.

EARLY CHILDHOOD AND SCHOOL-AGE SETTINGS

- Onsite support, including mental health consultation and screening activities to ensure early identification of behavioral and developmental concerns.
- Coaching and professional development activities and opportunities.

FAMILY SUPPORT SERVICES

- Support services for families in accessing and maintaining recommended treatment services.
- Resource Navigation (case management) to help secure resources.
- Education activities and/or one-on-one support for Parents, Guardians and Family Caregivers.

Funded in part by Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs (CYSHCN)